

14,236 in Area Eligible to Vote Tuesday

Sun Is Local 'Center'

Palm Springs area voters, totaling 14,236, will go to the polls tomorrow to cast their vote for the next President of the United States, a dozen other state and county offices, plus 15 state and one local proposition.

Aside from the Presidential race, which holds high interest among Desert area voters, the most important local contest will be the approval or disapproval of the Desert Hospital Bond Election.

THE AREA encompassed within the Hospital District includes Palm Springs, Cathedral City, Rancho Mirage, Thousand Palms, North Palm Springs, Garnet, Desert Hot Springs, and a small corner of Palm Desert.

According to the county registrar of voters, the party breakdown in this area is 7,708 Republicans, 5,558 Democrats, and 870 listed as other.

THE DESERT SUN has been chosen as election return center for the Palm Springs area, with all 61 of the precincts reporting into the center. A special staff will compile the local returns, and combine them with national, state and county returns for complete election coverage in The Desert Sun Wednesday.

Closely watched by local residents will be the race for the House of Representatives — 29th Congressional District, with Congressman D. S. Saund, Democrat, seeking to retain his seat against Republican candidate Charles Jameson of Corona.

On the state level, Lee-M. Backstrand, Republican and Assemblyman from the 71st California District, is battling Clifford V. Dean, Democrat from Riverside, for the State Senator seat; and in the Assembly race, Republican Gordon Cologne and Democrat David N. Strausser are candidates.

ALTHOUGH ALL of the Propositions are important to residents of the State, a half dozen take major interest.

First, in almost equal importance are Proposition 1 — the water revenue bonds, and Proposition 6 — Golf Course Taxation. Others holding importance to the local voters are: Proposition 2 — legislative terms, Proposition 3 — legislative compensation, Proposition 15 — redistricting; and Proposition 18 — Desert Hospital Bonds.

Members and precinct workers of both the Republican and Democratic parties are urging a heavy turnout in the vote tomorrow.

'Cat Burglar' Strikes Again Over Weekend

The "cat burglar" who has victimized hotel guests here while they slept in their rooms during the past two weeks, apparently struck three times over the weekend, with cash taken from two places, the Palm Springs police department reported today.

Bonhomme Magnus Cahn, 48, of 1831 North Fuller Street, Los Angeles, reported that approximately $200 in cash and an expensive wrist watch had been taken from his hotel bungalow early Sunday.

Mrs. Rose Blanche Schwartz, 2224 S. South Gate Street, Beverly Hills reported that someone had entered her room at the hotel after she had fallen asleep while reading at 3 a.m., Sunday, but nothing was taken.

Police surmised that the burglar who took an estimated $150 in cash from the home of Adolph Bremer, 2555 East Palm Canyon, early Sunday may have thought he was in a nearby hotel.

Police have apprehended one burglar with a similar operating procedure this season.

AT 8 A.M. TUESDAY

Bells to 'Alert' Village Voters

Chimes, sirens, and church bells will peal and wail in Palm Springs Tuesday morning, as the private and civic donation to the Boy Scout sponsored "Ring the Bell for Liberty" campaign to get area voters on their feet, and headed for the polls.

School bells will join into the combined booming and tinkling for the exercise of the ballot too. Such school bells as can take a five minute burst will ring along with the tolling bells and melodic chimes. Most school bells will probably have to mark the hour in shorter bursts of awakesfulness to keep from overheating.

City fathers in Palm Springs ooked the early call for citizen duty, and city fire and police sirens will join in the rousing start for the day at 8 a.m. At El Mirador Hotel, chimes housed in the colorful tower are expected to add a refined note to the civilian reveille, as elsewhere church bells toll.

Cathedral City, Palm Springs, and Desert Hot Springs will all join in the get-out-of-bed-to-vote callion. Some Boy Scouts may add a hand bell tinkle or two, but most Scouts, and their Cub Scout younger brothers, will be en route to school.

Desert area forecast:

Election Campaign Comes to End Today
With Intensive Efforts by Nixon, Kennedy

Kennedy Ahead In Final Polls

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The hectic 1960 presidential campaign comes to an end today with both candidates acting as if victory depended on a few more voters who could be converted by handshakes or glimpses at a TV screen.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy both undertook man-killing schedules for this election eve before awaiting the verdict from Tuesday's voting.

PUBLIC OPINION polls indicated Kennedy was ahead but not by a margin big enough to generate overconfidence in Democratic command posts. Nixon lieutenants disputed the polls and said they failed to reflect that Kennedy had passed a crest two weeks ago and that the vice president's timing carried his campaign to its peak at election time.

Both sides recognized that the religious issue—Kennedy is a Roman Catholic—was one of the big unknowns of the campaign and that it could both help and hurt each candidate. Another unknown factor was the impact of President Eisenhower's vigorous, 11th hour campaign in behalf of Nixon.

A RECORD TURNOUT is expected Tuesday. A forecast from Republican National Headquarters put the figure at about 67 million or within the 65 to 66 million range. Democratic headquarters predicted that the vote might climb above 69 million, compared with the previous record vote of slightly above 62 million in the presidential election of 1956.

In his final sprint, Kennedy was booked today for appearances in Rhode Island, Connecticut, Vermont and New Hampshire before moving into his home territory of Boston tonight. He will hear the returns Tuesday night at his summer home at Hyannis Port, Mass.

AFTER FULFILLING a pledge to campaign in all 50 states by flying to Anchorage, Alaska, Sunday, Nixon headed back east in an overnight flight to Madison, Wis.

From a brief stop in Madison, he moved to Detroit, where he made a four-hour television, unprecedented in a national campaign, to answer questions telephoned to the studio.

After a Chicago stop for another national TV appearance, he flies back to his home state of California. He votes Tuesday at Whittier and receives election returns at a Los Angeles hotel.

THE PRESIDENT and Henry

Cabot Lodge, GOP vice presidential nominee, campaigning today in New England, will share the TV screen with Nixon. Eisenhower will be shown from Washington and Lodge from Boston. The GOP has time on all three national TV networks between 7 and 9 p.m., p.s.t. Kennedy scheduled his final TV appeal from Boston over CBS at 8 p.m. p.s.t.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Democratic vice presidential nominee, was making his final campaign appearances in his home state of Texas, one of the major battlegrounds of the campaign.

CAMPAIGN MANAGERS for both candidates are most concerned about seven states with the largest blocks of electoral votes—New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, Illinois, Texas and California. These states combined have 205 of the 360 electoral votes needed by the winner.

Democrats are confidently claiming Kennedy ahead in all seven. Republicans, who are jittery about New York and its prize of 45 electoral votes, claim California and Texas for Nixon and call him a victor in at least a majority of the seven states.

In Tuesday's election, the voters also will elect 27 governors, 34 senators and all 437 House members along with thousands of state and local officials.

Walter Bishopp Succumbs Here At Age of 79

Walter B. Bishopp, 79, 895 Arquilla Road, a resident here for the past 24 years, succumbed Sunday morning after an illness of long duration.

A native of New York, he was a real estate investor in Hollywood for many years and at one time owned the corner of Hollywood and Vine and built the Alamo Theater there.

Funeral arrangements are in charge of Forest Lawn. Survivors include his widow, Marshal.

AFTER ATTACK

Gable's Condition Is 'Satisfactory'

HOLLYWOOD — 8PM — Clark Gable, personification of dashing movie heroes, was in "very satisfactory condition" today following a mild heart attack.

Stricken Sunday at his suburban Encino estate, the 59-year-old "king" of the stars rested comfortably at Hollywood Presbyterian Hospital with his wife Kay who had another bed moved into his room.

DR. FRED CERINI said the star of a hundred films was progressing satisfactorily. However, he refused to estimate how long Gable would remain in the hospital. A team of six nurses, two per shift, will stay in the room with the stricken actor and his wife.

He has been allowed to take liquids, although no solid foods have been given the strapping actor. Two oxygen hoses have been inserted in his nostrils.

GABLE'S HEART attack, following closely the deaths of TV star

Ward Bond and movie pioneer Mack Sennett, shocked the motion picture community. Gable had been a good friend of Bond's.

Mrs. Gable, the star's fifth wife, said, "Clark was very upset to hear about Ward's death. When they were younger the two of them rode motorcycles together. They even worked in pictures together."

BOND PLAYED a leading character role in "It Happened One Night," in which Gable won an Academy Award "Oscar" in 1934. Mrs. Gable explained in detail her husband's heart attack.

"He woke me up early Sunday morning, complaining of pains in his chest and arms," she said.

"He thought it was the flu or something. But I could see by the clammy perspiration on his forehead that he was really sick. I called a doctor right away and the fire department. They gave him oxygen and took him right to the hospital in an ambulance."

Finch Trial Ends with Hung Jury

Poll Reveals 11-1 Deadlock For Conviction

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The 2nd murder trial of Dr. R. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff today ended in a hung jury—the same as the first trial.

The jury announced that it was hopelessly deadlocked 11-1 for conviction. It took 50 ballots.

UNITED PRESS International learned from a high courtroom official early last week that the marathon deliberations of 70 hours and 35 minutes had produced a second hung jury with a 9-3 deadlock for conviction of both.

Two days later came the most surprising action of both trials.

SUPERIOR JUDGE Larry Dawson, before the jury and defendants, read from a prepared statement that in his opinion testimony of the prosecution's two star witnesses was more reasonable than that of the defendants.

Dawson said he felt Finch committed the story of how his wife met death to cover up "for the obvious willful taking of a human life."

JOHN PATRICK Cody, an ex-convict billed by the lovers in Las Vegas, Nev., was one of the witnesses for whom Dawson vouched. Cody, a self-styled ladies' man admitted under oath time and again in both trials that he had been a liar and would lie for love, money or most anything.

The defense held Cody was hired to follow Mrs. Finch to garner counter-divorce evidence to match a suit she had filed against the tennis-playing physician.

Cody, however, testified he was paid $2,000 to kill the socialite—a job he said he never intended to carry out.

It remained the word of Cody against the word of Finch, and the job of the jury was to decide which was telling the truth, with the lives of two persons in the balance.

TV INTERRUPTION DUE TO ELECTRIC FAILURES 'ONLY'

Palm Springs Television Corporation is politically non-partisan, manager Frank Allen said today as he told of receiving many calls from listeners Saturday complaining about interruption of the television cable service during broadcasts by both parties.

Allen explained that the failures were due to electric company difficulties, not the Television Corporation.

Trailer Park Group to Select Meet Delegates

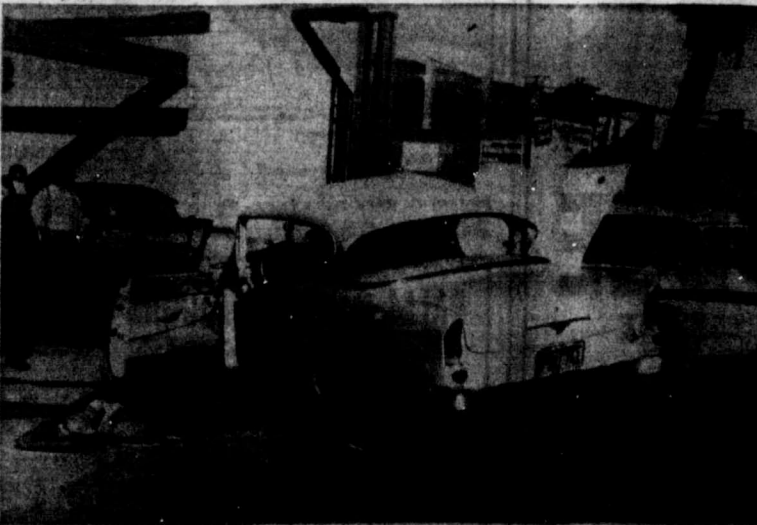

Delegates for the annual convention of the California Trailer Park Association in Santa Monica Nov. 13-15, will be selected at a meeting of the local group, Unit No. 7, at 7:30 p.m., tonight, Monday, at Rancho Park.

Plans will be discussed for attracting more trailers into the area, according to T. J. Sessions, president. He pointed out that a survey shows that many people in other cities have a mistaken idea as to the cost of living and availability of spaces in the Palm Springs area.

All trailer park owners and managers, whether members or not, are invited to attend the meeting.

Reds Display Missile Might

MOSCOW (UPI) — Defense Minister Rodion Malinovsky displayed Soviet missile might for the elite of the Communist world today and warned it would "crush" anyone who tried to start a war against Russia.

INJURED IN A two-car collision at Tamarisk Road and North Palm Canyon Drive at approximately 8:40 a. m., today, was Mrs. Dorothy Woodman Perkins, 58, of Box 108, Cathedral City. Mrs. Perkins' 1956 model car collided with a 1957 station wagon driven south on Palm Canyon Drive by Mrs. Betty Walker, 34, of 1010 12th Street, Beaumont. Mrs. Perkins was admitted to Desert Hospital for observation. (Desert Sun Photo)

DEATH FOLLOWS FALL FROM CAR

A 23-year-old Palm Springs man is dead today after he attempted last night to hold onto a speeding vehicle as it traveled along Sunrise Way, investigating officers reported.

Salvatore Alaimo, 23, East Sunny Dunes Road, Palm Springs, died at Desert Hospital at 4 a.m., after he fell from a speeding car about 7:30 last night.

ARRESTED WAS the driver of the car, Phillip Morris Barnes, 23, of Thousand Palms, who was charged with suspicion of hit and run — felony.

Police Sgt. T. M. Aitken said the "race for death" began early in the evening at a local restaurant.

Covered Wagon Here Overnight

Mrs. Vivian Larsen, of Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada, and her 15-year-old daughter Sandra arrived here Sunday on their 4,300 mile cross-country wagon trek to Hollywood.

"Bob," their 1,500 pound, 13 year old horse, got a plush western reception at Smoketree Stables here. He also got a new pair of steel shoes put on this morning.

One Killed, Three Injured as Truck Strikes Cars

DESERT CENTER — Charles Winans, 25, 10-745 Noble Street, Beaumont, was thrown from his car and killed under grinding debris off Highway 60-70, 700 feet from the Eagle Mountain road when his car was struck in the rear by a heavy tank truck driven by Harold Owen Briggs, 25, of Oildale.

The California Highway Patrol reported Winans, an employee of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, was attempting to push a car occupied by three Eagle Mountain teen-age youths.

Winans' car was smashed under the heavy tractor of the tanker as both vehicles plunged down an embankment off the highway.

Winans was thrown from his car, but crushed by tangled debris. Injured in the accident were George F. Lore, 19, Gary Powers, 18, and Steve Bachinell, 18.

Su Zan Swain Insect Paintings Go Into Museum

Large-scale insect paintings by Su Zan Swain are now on view at the Palm Springs Desert Museum.

The paintings comprise the originals used for illustrations in the Ralph and Su Zan Swain book, "Insect Guide," and are on loan from the University of Colorado Museum. They will be shown until Dec. 1.

More than 3,500 persons visited the Museum during the 3-week showing of Life magazine photographic exhibition, "The Best of Life." This is the largest attendance ever recorded at the Museum so early in the season, and of this total nearly one-quarter were children.

Children's attendance is showing a marked increase over any preceding year, according to Dr. C. E. Smith, director. In addition to the after-school visitors, three third grade classes totaling 92 children came by bus from Arlington. There are four more class groups scheduled for the remainder of this month.

The first engagement and only major battle in Arkansas during the Civil War was the Battle of Pea Ridge, fought near Bentonville in March, 1862.

M'COUBREY SUMS UP '60 ELECTION

Edgar L. McCoubrey, president of the Palm Springs Republican Assembly, today summed up the 1960 campaign by urging all Americans to go to the polls and vote on Tuesday.

Asked what he considers to be highlights of the race for the Presidency, McCoubrey replied, "We certainly believe that the people, through the media of the press, radio and television, are better informed than ever before in history on the experience, background and plans of the candidates."

SIZING UP THE past months of the campaign, he added, "It appears to me that Senator Kennedy's campaign has been based upon telling us that everything is wrong with the country, but that he has failed to come up with any plans for improvement of the situation he criticizes."

"The one exception, his farm program, is unrealistic, unmanageable, and would result in price increases on all foods."

"In contrast, Vice President Nixon has endorsed the Eisenhower program that has served the nation well for the last eight years. More important, he has behind him a team consisting of the most capable leaders in America today."

Men such as Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, President Eisenhower, Senator Thomas Kuchel, former Senator William Knowland, Senator Barry Goldwater, Governor Nelson Rockefeller, Governor James Byrnes, Secretary of Labor James Mitchell, Congressman Walter Judd and many others."

"ON THE OTHER HAND," McCoubrey continued, "Senator Kennedy does not seem to want to tell us who he would have on his team."

"As a matter of fact, he seldom even gives recognition to his running mate, Senator Lyndon Johnson. Perhaps he intends to run the government as a Kennedy family enterprise."

America's first postal route provided monthly service between New York and Boston. It was opened on Jan. 22, 1873.

PROPOSITION 15 DRIVE IN PROBE

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An investigation into alleged undue pressures in efforts to raise campaign funds for Proposition 15 has been stymied by a lack of cooperation from the campaign committee, according to Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk.

The investigation will not be completed by election day, Nov. 8, but will continue regardless of the election's outcome, Mosk said.

PROPOSITION 15 is an initiative measure to reapportion the state senate to divide the 40 seats evenly between Northern and Southern California. Principle support for the measure has come from the Los Angeles board of supervisors. Mosk's investigation started last month following complaints that some individuals and companies doing business with Los Angeles County had faced "undue pressure" from solicitors for campaign funds for the measure.

CHARLES O'BRIEN, chief assistant attorney general, was asked if the lack of cooperation referred to the fact that the "committee for Senate Reapportionment—Yes on 15" had lumped $66,656 in one entry of its supplementary report of receipts totaling $68,016, which was filed last week with the secretary of state.

"That does not satisfy the election code that says the donor of any contribution over $25 must be listed," O'Brien said. "This is a matter we are checking into right now."

IN THE SUPPLEMENTARY financial report, the $66,656 was attributed to the "committee for equitable representation in the state senate." On Sept. 26, the two committees filed a joint report itemizing 437 contributions totalling $163,906.

Proposition 15 has been opposed by every county board of supervisors in the state except Los Angeles, and by most high state officials, including Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

The "tween season" in Barbados—September through November—means a considerable drop in hotel and guest house rates. For example, a guest house room and all meals can be had for $4. Hotels charge as little as $7 daily per person, double occupancy, including meals. In addition to warm, sunny days, the Caribbean resort is hay fever-free.

'NICEST CITIZEN' PICKS UP TAXES FOR ENTIRE CITY

ROCKPORT, Mo., (UPI)—Few are quicker than George Opp when it comes to picking up the tab. And when he pays, everyone benefits.

That's what happened when Opp, a hotel operator and farmer in this Northwestern Missouri community, paid everyone's city taxes for the year. The bill amounted to $19,208.

Mr. and Mrs. Opp, who have operated the hotel here for 38 years, had hoped to remain anonymous benefactors of the city. But their philanthropy was revealed Friday when citizens began asking why the city tax bills for the year had not been mailed. "Last year Opp donated $7,000 to the city for a street improvement program, which now has started."

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: For eleven years I have been married to a man who has had me running in a contest with his mother. No matter what I do, his mother could have done it better, faster and cheaper. It's true, his mother is a very able woman, but in my own way I do all right, too. If he eats something at her house that he likes, I try to make it for him at home, but it never comes out like hers. (Maybe I try too hard?) His mother knits things for him, so I learned to knit, but he never wears my things—only hers. I really like his mother, but she makes everything so difficult for me because she is such an expert. Am I childish for feeling hurt and how can I overcome it?

NO MATCH FOR MAMMA
DEAR NO: Don't try to compete with your husband's mother. She is at least 20 years ahead of you, and always will be. Use a little originality, and quit knocking yourself out trying to top someone who became tops through years of practice and experience.

DEAR ABBY: Bill (not his real name) and I are very much in love, but we are not old enough to get married without our parents' consent. We thought if we had to get married they would sign for us, so we went ahead and followed that plan. Now it turns out that our parents refuse to sign for us. Bill is on probation and we were told the authorities would force him to marry me after getting me in this condition, but we discovered that wasn't true, either. Can you help us, Abby? I am 15 and Bill is 14. I want to keep my baby, but everybody is against it.

IN TROUBLE
DEAR IN TROUBLE: Better do as your parents advise. Kids; otherwise, with this start you could be in trouble the rest of your lives—and you both have a long way to go!

DEAR ABBY: I have been reading a lot lately about people who have "willed" their eyes to a blind person. I am over 21 and would like to do this. How do I go about it, please?

JAY L.
DEAR JAY: Get in touch with an International Lions Club or the Medical School in your area for full particulars.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe you can help us barbers. Why do women wait until Saturday to bring their kids in for haircuts? These women have all day. Why can't they bring them in after school? When working men come into the barber shop on Saturday, it is always full of kids.

Also, we barbers would rather have fathers bring in their kids than mothers. The women stand around the chair and tell the barber how to cut hair. I wish the days would come back when no respectable woman would be seen in a barber shop.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and include a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Abby answers ALL mail.

Jameson for Congress

There has been an upswell of sentiment toward the candidacy of Charles Jameson for Congress which well may carry him through tomorrow's election as the winner. If this is so, and there are sizeable indications that it is, we believe that Riverside and Imperial counties will be well represented. We recommend your vote tomorrow for Jameson.

So far as can be determined, the chief plea of Democratic incumbent D. S. Saund has been still the wonderful effect on worldwide opinion, particularly in the dark-skinned countries, of America's electing an immigrant boy from India to Congress.

This was, of course, the big pitch in Saund's first race and possibly had merit then. But a congressman's job is first to serve his district in Congress. If his talents and morale effect lie better in State Department activities, the country would be better off if Saund were given a State Department post in India.

Meanwhile, in Congress, his record is impressive only in that it follows straight down the ADA-CIO line. He has been in the left wing of the Democratic party, an advocate of large Federal spending and of giveaway welfare programs.

Saund has been credited with much service to his district but it is a fact that during his terms the El Centro Naval Auxiliary Air station was largely de-activated while its facilities were duplicated at a cost of $12 million in Yuma. Corona Naval hospital was closed and March Air Force Base sharply cut back. It would seem that, for one reason or another, many of the doors in Washington which should be open to our Congressman have not been open.

Charles Jameson, on the other hand, is no die-hard extreme right wing Republican, but rather a middle-of-the-road man. Affable, well-rounded mentally, and well grounded in politics, he has shown not only ability to serve but ability to get elected. His terms as Corona councilman and Mayor have given him a good grasp of the problems of the district he would serve.

Unseating an incumbent is never easy, but in this race has daily become more probable. Jameson has never lost an election. With a large enough turnout of the voters tomorrow, it's just more than likely he'll keep that record.

'Who's Dead, Sonny?'

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

Tomorrows the day,
Be sure that you vote,
So if your side wins
You've the right to gloat.

If you don't vote and your side wins,
You'll be sorry that you were too lazy or negligent.

IN THE HISTORY of the United States there have been many instances of one vote determining the result.
So don't say: "What's the use. My one vote won't make any difference."

California was admitted to the Union by one vote, remember? Rutherford Hayes was elected president by one vote over Sam Tilden.
There are other similar cases. So your vote DOES count.

I KNOW HOW I am going to vote tomorrow. In fact, I already have, by absentee ballot. But my voting record is pretty poor.

Cast my first presidential ballot for Teddy R. in 1912. Barely got under the wire. Lost that one. Lost again in '16 and '20. Won in '24 then switched from Republican to Democrat, for a change, and lost in 1928. Then followed five straight losses on the GOP side. Didn't win until '32 and '58.

So my president voting record is a dim 3-9 of .250 as they say in baseball.

OUT OF THE 15 propositions, amendments and so on, on tomorrow's ballot, there is one that is of utmost importance to the desert area. That's No. Six.

There are a dozen golf courses around here and this measure vitally affects them.

Hal Wood, United Press International sports writer, puts it this way in his column:

"IF CALIFORNIA voters reject Proposition Six on the ballot Tuesday, many private golf courses that have been fixtures since the turn of the century, are expected to go out of business."

"County assessors in some areas have been attempting to tax the golf course land on the value it has as an industrial or residential property. Club officials believe the land should be taxed only as recreational property."

So, I'll just add, do as the billboards say. "Vote yes on Six and keep California green."

BEING THE ONE who's never in the right place at the right time, I missed out on a great treat the other night. So I've been told by many people.

STAN DELAPLANE: ...As Pretty Does

By unfortunate coincidence, all my family birthdays come almost together. A thing like this absolutely wrecks the most careful budget. There ought to be insurance for it.

BIRTHDAYS fell upon me and my son last month. He thought it was wonderful. You know what I thought? I thought, "What, again? Already."

WE ARE BORN under the sign of Libra. Our ruling planet is Venus.
"The planetary ruler of Libra is harmonious, dainty Venus, imbuing its heirs with love of peace, composure and beauty."

I QUOTE FROM "The Guide to Astrology." It is an excellent book — 100 per cent correct.
We love peace, composure and beauty. We also love hamburgers, butter-licked ice cream cones, chocolate-dipped, and have a tender feeling for the little girl next door even though she does not like to play Indian.

I DO NOT HAVE the charts to do my son's horoscope — at one time I could do these things and communed with interesting people.

We lived at that time in Ojai, Calif., which was the magnetic center of the earth. That is what the local group of horoscopes had figured out.

This made it the prime place for generating new thoughts and prophecies. A friend of mine quit a fairly good job as a rewrite man on the New York Daily News to become one of the prophets.

HE RAISED a beard and lived nude and free under the live oaks.

He said it was better than rewrite. After I had done some ten years playing scrabble for the headlines, I was inclined to agree with him.

I AM RULED by harmonious, dainty Venus. But I have a bad square of Mars to Venus.

That is square as Jack the bear.

THE lady who did my horoscope said: "Be careful of accidents and operations."

FINANCES CLEARED almost immediately for my son. He got a check for $5.

FINANCES clouded for me in the same amount since I was the giver.

OUR EMOTIONS, however, were quite sound, I said. "Here, son, go down to the toy store and have a ball for yourself."

He said, "Thank you, Daddy."

We went out together and had a butter-licked cone with chocolate frosting. Happy birthday.

Hottest Feud

HOLLYWOOD — Hottest feud in TVillage, Tinseltown, USA: Connie Stevens and Dorothy Provine. Dorothy's upset because Warner - TV has given Connie time off from the Hawaiian Eye series to make two movies, while Dorothy is stuck with her own series. I can remember when Dorothy was happy to get a part — ANY part. Sometimes I wonder if any actor or actress is ever happy with his or her lot. Even those who've won one Oscar seem worried about where their next bookend is coming from.

Timex is prepping a Jane Russell for the spring. Theme: Russels of Spring.

TV WRITER BILL Spillane (no relation to Mickey) took time off to spill out a father-son sequel to The Proud Rebel, to co-star father Alan Ladd with son David.

Tab Hunter, claiming he was framed (even though acquitted) in that dog-beating trial, moved out of Glendale. But Bob Hope lifted an eyebrow at the news and cracked, "Whoever heard of being framed in GLENDALE?"

Julie London lurched past the studio censors and poured herself into two-thirds of an evening gown for a guest shot in a Dan Raven segment.

THE CAST and crew of Wagon Train showed up at M-G-M, miles away from their regular base of operations at Revue Studios. Quite a furor. But it seemed down when Ward Bond explained he brought his Wagonites along to film a TV commercial for a new station WAGON!

That cotton-pickin' Joe Cotten's Thomas Jefferson readings are coming out under Verve Records' aegis. But his Readings from the Holy Bible are being plattered for the Cricket label.

CARD POSTMARKED Venice (where the floods are), from Jean Hagen: "We came to sunny Italy to shoot some TV stuff and found not only the canals but the lobby and our ROOMS flooded. I caught a carp from Capri in the dining room. These Italians seem to overdo everything — oh, to be back in sunny California."

An agent asked his singing star, "Would you like to try out for Lawrence Welk's Champagne Lady?" Slapped the canary. "No thanks, honey, I'm on the wagon."

HOLLYWOOD HOTSTUFF — It's a case of temper, temper on the set of Come September in Rome. The picture is overschedule, I hear, because Gina Lollobrigida is overwrought about Sandra Dee being in the cast. Lollo reportedly asked U-I to see that the younger actress is "de-glamorized a little."

Larry Harvey won't be marrying Joan Cohn after Joan's divorce from Harry Karl clears the way for Harry to marry Debbie Reynolds. That's what Larry told me at the Carthay Circle premiere of The Alamo. Said he: "I like being a bachelor." Then the British actor, who co-stars in The Alamo with John Wayne, pulled a miniature British flag out of his pocket, explaining, "It keeps me from being lonesome."

HARVEY MISSED most of his own premiere. He can't stand seeing himself on film and spent two-thirds of the picture pacing the lobby nervously. Joan O'Brien, featured importantly, also missed her big night but for a different reason: SHE and her whole family were bedded with the flu.

Dean Martin entertained at the party following the "preem." Shirley MacLaine and Chill Willis got him off by pouring water on him, hanging a chair on his arm, showing a tray with a drink on it into his hands, and draping him with a napkin "to make him look like a table." The brawl broke up at 4 a.m.

MARILYN MONROE and Arthur Miller seemed happy, on the surface, attending the set-closing party tossed by John Huston and Frank Taylor for the cast and crew of The Misfits. Their pals claim it's just a smokescreen and that the Millers will wait till they return to New York before making The Announcement.

Hallowe'en haul for Princess Yasmin, Rita Hayworth's daughter and heiress to 20 of the late Aly Khan's millions: a pocketful of pennies and a bagful of jelly beans.

M-G-M HAD TO dig down deep to pay for Marion Brando's 500 pounds of excess baggage on his flight to Tahiti to shoot Mutiny on the Bounty. Most of it was bongo drums and hi-fi equipment.

Fox has its scouts out looking for Ronnie McCaskill to reunion with Clifton Webb, Maureen O'Hara and Robert Young in Hummingbird Hill, sequel to Sitting Pretty. He's the kid Clifton clobbered with a mush bowl in that immortal Sitting Pretty sequence back in 1947. He would be 19 years old now. Last the studio heard of Ronnie, he was a gas station jockey somewhere in Los Angeles.

Hayes Target For New Lawsuit

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Millionaire builder Hal B. Hayes has been sued for $183,000 by the Al-Lee No. 1, Inc., which contends he promised to pay the money for its services in bidding on some $60 million in government contracts.

The suit was filed Friday in superior court by Attorney Marvin Gross who said Hayes "voluntarily halted and ceased construction of the projects although they were near completion."

The boys, who had announced they had a beef with a brother and a sister of one boy, packed up and took to the desert with their earthly possessions.

Included in the gear for facing the world were one dollar bill, two dollars in change, a knife, and odds and ends that fit into the pockets of 11 year old boys.

A second sister of one of the boys was invited to join the protest march, but declined. Parents of boys explained the lads took off at approximately 11:30 p.m., after prior warning. The matter was arbitrated in family council.

LEE BACKSTRAND for STATE SENATOR

Don't SPLIT CALIFORNIA

"Vote NO on 15" say...

Would you amputate your leg to cure a sore toe? Would you burn your house down to kill termites?

If not, neither would you by the same logic wreck California to solve problems in the composition of the state senate.

✓ By freezing 20 senators north and 20 senators south into the state constitution, No. 15 would split California and paralyze legislative action.

✓ By shortchanging other counties under an arbitrary shuffling of senators, No. 15 would isolate Los Angeles and turn California's other 57 counties against her

✓ By brazenly grabbing for Los Angeles one-third of all Southern California's 20 senators, No. 15 would disrupt the Southland and generate fierce political enmity against Los Angeles by her 12 southern County neighbors.

✓ By junking traditional American checks and balances protection of good government, No. 15 would disenfranchise much of California and pave the way for government by pressure and power politics.

Don't be misled. This hasty, divisive, discriminatory scheme would sow a whirlwind. Vote NO on 15. Let the Governor's promised "Reapportionment Commission" examine this problem and generate a solution which can be approved by a unified California.

Kennedy Assets, Liabilities Are Same

By United Press International
If Sen. John F. Kennedy has paused during his campaign for the presidency to ponder his political assets and liabilities, he must have found the same entries recurring on both sides of the balance sheet.
His age . . . his religion . . . his family background . . . his education . . . his pretty wife.

SOME VOTERS evidently were attracted, and others repelled, by each of these ingredients in the Kennedy personality.

At 42, Kennedy is one of the youngest men ever to run for the nation's highest office. Some Americans felt that his youth would insure a fresh, dynamic approach to national problems. Others equated it with lack of experience.

He is the first Roman Catholic to be nominated for the presidency since 1928, and his religion has made him the target of bitter attacks from some quarters. But politicians said he would gain as well as lose votes because of his church affiliation.

THE VAST WEALTH and political prominence of the Boston Irish clan from which he sprang also seemed to help and hurt him at the same time. On the one hand, his family background provided him with money and a great many attractive, hard-working relatives to assist with his campaigning.

JOHN F. KENNEDY

Kennedy's cultured accent, his ability to quote easily from poetry and the classics, has been a constant reminder that he was a product of Choate and Harvard, a certified intellectual who had won critical acclaim with two scholarly books.

Even chic and beautiful Jacqueline Kennedy, whom he married in 1953, became a campaign issue. There are those who think she would make the loveliest and most gracious first lady any nation could want. And there are those who say she spends too much on her clothes.

JOHN FITZGERALD Kennedy brought into his campaign two other attributes which were undeniably assets.

One was courage. He demonstrated it in World War II when he was cited by the Navy for heroism in saving his crew after a PT boat under his command was sliced in two by a Japanese destroyer in the Pacific. He demonstrated it on several notable occasions during his 13 years' service in Congress — for example, when he voted against a veterans' pension bill and criticized the American Legion for pushing it.

HE ALSO SHOWED his courage during the six months he spent in hospitals in 1954 and 1955, risking death in extremely serious operations in order to correct a back injury that he had suffered in the war.

The other asset was political skill. Perhaps he inherited it from his grandfathers, both of whom were successful Boston politicians. Perhaps he learned it the hard way, in getting elected three times to the U. S. House of Representatives and twice to the Senate. When Adlai E. Stevenson threw the vice presidential nomination up for grabs at the 1960 Democratic convention, Kennedy made a strong bid for it. Although he lost by a hair, he became overnight a well-known national figure.

HE BEGAN campaigning for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination almost as soon as the 1956 elections were over, and he had it sewed up, before the convention met in Los Angeles in July, by winning every primary he entered.

Both in his mastery, intuitive sense of politics, and in some of the other traits of his personality, Kennedy reminded some folks of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt. He gladly accepted this identification with FDR, and it has become one of the pronounced features of his campaign.

SANDPIPER

Party 'Slate Gets Started for Co-Op

Just October but entertaining and party time seems to be in full swing at the Sandpiper where nearly all three units were ready to hang out the "full sign."

The Earle Phillips apartment played host to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Immell and Mr. and Mrs. Michael, both of Santa Ana. Other Santa Anans included Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hanna, who was the guest at the Lee Findley cottage.

From that same area, R. W. Marcellus of Anaheim was present as guests of the Clarence Beesmyers. Mrs. Marcellus is the Beesmyer's daughter and had as their guest their attractive teenage daughter, Heidi. Mr. Beesmyer is in the oil business in Santa Ana.

Other Orange Countians were the L. B. Harbours as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Butler. Mr. Harbour is Mr. Butler's building company partner, but they were rivals on Saturday as the couples sat glued to their poolside radio following the fortunes of their alma maters, Mr. Butler's USC and Mr. Harbour's Stanford.

Among other guests on hand and enjoying one of the season's finest weekends was Roy Sheldon's friend Fred Snell of Los Angeles.

The Frank Harrington apartment hosted Los Angeles interior decorator, Delena Constantine and her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hatch, also of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Froude, sister of Stamford, Conn., owner, Dr. Miller, enjoyed the Miller apartment along with the Miller's son and daughter-in-law. Mrs. Froude will be enjoying the Sandpiper sun and fun for several weeks.

Other out-of-staters, the James Conley's of Willington, Delaware, saw their cottage enjoyed by Mrs. Charles Herpick and their pixy like granddaughter, Lauren, two years old.

Entertaining their son, Don, his girl friend from USA and one other young couple, were the Keith Farrars. Son Don was on leave from the Navy.

The James Ilse, one of the newer Sandpiper owners, entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Rogers over the weekend.

Preparing for a long, long season, new Sandpiper owners, the Harvey Kruzes of Pasadena spent most of the weekend arranging and decorating their new unit.

Ready for the season and back from their Newport Beach own-your-own home over looking the bay, are the Vaughn Edgars.

Prominent Long Beach dentist, Dr. Adrian Hubbell, Mrs. Hubbell and their three daughters also visited their Sandpiper home for the first time.

Back for the season from Tulsa, Okla., are Mr. and Mrs. Rocky Harris. Mr. Harris is getting back into the golf swing of things.

Needed Leadership in the 60's

Our country must have vigorous, decisive leadership—now. Our economy cannot afford to remain stagnant. A "New Frontier" awaits our people. Tomorrow promises an abundance of goods to fill the needs of an expanding and employed population. Today, all Americans pray for world peace to achieve these goals.

The future is here—the opportunity is now.

Our country, the world, demands a man who can provide imaginative and aggressive leadership. Woodrow Wilson was one such man. Franklin Roosevelt and Harry Truman were such men.

We, the undersigned, urge you to restore America to this great tradition!

SAN DIEGO ZOO BOASTS BIRTH OF FIRST 'TEDDY BEAR'

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (UP) — San Diego Zoo officials boasted a new star boarder today, a "teddy bear," believed to be the first Koala born outside its native Australia.

Zoo officials caught a glimpse of the young Koala Friday when it poked its head out of mama Mary Jane's pouch for the first time. The officials suspected its presence since September, but weren't sure.

A zoo spokesman said the baby Koala would appear more frequently now, but would not leave mama's pouch permanently for about six months.

ANGOLA, N.Y. (UPI) — A huge wrought-iron anchor nine feet long, with flukes six feet across, was recovered from a wreck of water in Lake Erie by three scuba divers—one with great imagination.

Asked what he would do with the anchor, believed lost about the time of the War of 1812, Albert Greenwood, 15, replied: "Make a lamp out of it, I guess."

MILLIONS WILL MISS THEIR VOTE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If past experience is a guide, millions of Americans will renege on their duty as citizens of a democracy by failing to vote.

The best showing this country has ever made in turning out the vote was in 1952, when 62.7 per cent of the civilians of voting age actually went to the polls.

ONLY 50.4 PERCENT voted in the last presidential election year, 1956.

The lowest turnout of any recent presidential election was in 1940, when 51.5 per cent of the electorate participated in the balloting which gave Harry S. Truman an upset victory over Thomas E. Dewey.

In off-year elections, when the White House is not at stake, voting falls off sharply. In 1958, only 43.7 per cent of the adult civilian population voted, and in 1954, only 42.5 per cent.

OTHER DEMOCRATIC countries have far better records. Library of Congress researchers give these figures for the percentage of the electorate actually voting in various countries in recent years: Canada, 78 per cent; Great Britain, 78.8 per cent; Austria, 97 per cent; New Zealand, 94 per cent; Norway, 78.2 per cent; Sweden, 77 per cent; Italy, 93 per cent.

Even in India, where widespread illiteracy complicates voting, 61.2 per cent of the electorate went to the polls at the last election.

More than one-fifth of the deaths from motor vehicle accidents occur in the age group 15 to 24 years.

Where There's Smoke

McALLEN Tex. (UPI) — Firemen in this lower Rio Grande Valley city were almost called upon recently to fight water with water.

A passerby noticed smoke coming from the roof of a building and sounded the alarm. Firemen arrived, bells clanging, to find steam rising from a metal roof still warm enough from the sun to turn a cool summer rain into vapor.

Panhellenic Luncheon Will be Held at Smoke Tree Ranch

The beautiful autumn setting for Panhellenic's next luncheon meeting on Thursday, November 10, at 12:30, will be Smoke Tree Ranch.

The program will be one of interest to the members according to Mrs. James L. O'Reilly, president of the organization, as Dr. Roy McCall, president of the new Junior College will speak on "Your College of the Desert." Dr. McCall's talk will cover the general plan for the campus; its progress to date and plans for the future; and the curriculum under consideration. A main part of the program will be the discussion period in which members will ask questions, and Dr. McCall will answer them.

Once again the members are looking forward to the monthly bridge tournaments in which the husbands participate, with proceeds helping to enlarge the scholarship fund.

Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mrs. Jacques Crommelin, Mrs. Gibson Lloyd-Jones, and Mrs. Harry Ramsey.

All qualified Panhellenic members may make reservations by calling FA 5-5919, FA 5-6336, FA 5-6935, or DI 7-5574.

Antiques Go up in Value

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Buying antiques is like buying stocks and bonds, says one authority in the antiques field. Wisely chosen for a long-range investment and not for speculation, they're bound to pay off.

"And you get the additional return of looking at and using the antiques," said Walter du Verrier. "Stocks you've got to keep locked in a safety deposit box."

The market value of antiques, like the market value of art, keeps going up, said Du Verrier during an interview at the New York antiques fair this week. He gave two reasons. One, all the money around apparently just waiting to be spent. And two, the increase in the number of collectors.

"I can show item by item various things which are bringing two to 10 times what they cost 30 years ago," said Du Verrier. "That is, if you can find them now. Thirty years ago, one out of every 1,000 persons might have been interested in antiques either as a collector or a dealer. Today, it's more nearly one out of every 100."

He listed two examples of rising prices in the antiques field.

One, biscuit tins with a "trompe l'oeil" design—that is, shaped like books, furniture or a globe, instead of like a plain old biscuit tin.

These are vintage 1900 to 1910, he said, and originally were used by commercial food packagers. A few years ago, the nominal price on one would be $5 to $10. Today, he said, they're snapped up by private collectors or food companies at $30 to $40 each.

And the other, American pewter, which now is worth three to four times what it cost a collector 30 or 40 years ago.

I asked Du Verrier to list some "blue chip" antiques—those which he considered sound investments rather than gambles. "French, American, or English furniture of the 18th and early 19th century," he answered. "American silver, especially Georgian. Pewter. Good patterned pressed glass. Lowestoft porcelain. Oriental import. Any porcelain made prior to 1840 and in good condition. Grandfather clocks."

"Of course," he said, "antiques like fashions have their fads. Right now, the biggest fad of all—the one with the most impact—is art nouveau."

Art nouveau, he explained, includes colored leaded glass lampshades which hung from ceilings during the late Victorian era, leaded glass panes, art glass and bronze figures.

Du Verrier, 40, a native New Yorker, has been in antiques since 1947—first under the tutelage of the late Alfred Farber, one of New York's most respected dealers, then for six years with his shop in Canaan, Conn., and now in the heart of the antiques shopping district in Manhattan.

If you have a yen to be a collector, Du Verrier offered this advice:

"Read every article, every book you can find on antiques. Never miss an antiques show. Hunt antiques shops and museums. Collect what truly interests you, and don't scatter your interests. Don't overbuild your collection, so that it becomes a bore to you, and to your friends."

CORNEBEEF WITH ORANGE GLAZE

If you're planning a buffet party during the holiday season, "Orange-Glazed Corned Beef" would be a perfect entree. Ring this tender, tangy California corned beef with sliced canned cling peach halves and accompany with a zippy mustard. Round out the menu with buttered mushrooms and lima beans, tossed green salad and hot rolls. Pound cake or fruit cake with ice cream would be a good dessert. Coffee, of course.

Cover 6-pound piece California corned beef round or eye of round with cold water. Add 1 sliced medium onion and 2 cloves garlic. Slowly bring to simmering and cook about 3 hours, until tender. Let meat cool in broth. Place drained corned beef in baking pan; score fat and stud with whole cloves. Mix together 1/4 cup brown sugar (packed), 2 tablespoons fine bread crumbs, 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard, grated peel of 1 lemon and grated peel of 1 orange. Put mixture over scored meat. Combine juice of 1 lemon, juice of 1 orange and 1/4 cup sherry wine; spoon a few tablespoons over beef to moisten sugar mixture. Bake in hot oven (400 degrees F.) just to brown lightly. When browned, reduce temperature to moderate (350 degrees F.) and continue baking until heated through, about 25 to 30 minutes. Baste frequently with fruit juice mixture. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Returned Traveler to Speak at Hadassah Membership Tea

Dr. Sadie Shellow, who has just returned from two months stay in Europe and Israel, will be the guest speaker at the Palm Springs Chapter of Hadassah Membership Tea, Wednesday, November 9 at 1 p.m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Adass, 1090 Sagebrush Drive.

Having been a consultant psychologist for a good many years, Dr. Shellow was particularly interested in the Jewish people in the several countries she visited: Poland, Austria, Israel, Italy and France.

Her topic "These Are Our People," with particular emphasis on the people in Israel where she spent three weeks, will be of great interest to all her friends and admirers in the local Chapter, of which Dr. Shellow is a Charter member and program chairman.

DR. SADIE SHELOW, just returned from two months in Europe and Israel, will be the guest speaker when Hadassah holds its Membership Tea on Wednesday.

Sigma Gamma Hears about Need for Bonds

The "why," "how" and "how much" of the coming hospital bond election was fully explained to members of Sigma Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Tuesday evening by Hospital Administrator Robert Henwood and Dr. Charles McCammon. Both men stressed the need for the hospital to keep up with the ever increasing population. Following the main part of the program, Henwood and Dr. McCammon answered many pertinent questions asked them by the members.

The meeting was held at the home of Dr. Lucille Fostvedt and hosted by Millie Herbert.

Apple pie and coffee was enjoyed by members Helen Gundry, Glenda Moulton, Fayne Pritchett, Bettie Lacy, Eleanor Lenox, Marie Ford, Sally Givens and Mona Cameron, a transferee.

The next regular meeting will be held on November 15 at the home of Bettie Lacy, 1850 Mesa Drive.

Always close the zipper before sending a garment to the laundry or dry cleaner.

Promote Safety in Homes by Pasting Warning Signs Wherever Danger Exists

CHICAGO (UPI) — Use paint to promote safety at home. Steep, grow basement stairs will be treacherous if the top and bottom steps are marked with black spots on a light, bright color. The right paint should go on first, covering the entire step. When it is dry, apply masking tape, stripes and paint the exposed area black. Do stairwells should be painted light, or some pale pastel color. Yellow, always easy to see, is excellent for low basement pipes. An emergency first aid kit should be green, the traditional safety color.

Paint dangerous parts of any power equipment with yellow and black stripes. Tools should be hung out of reach of young hands. As an added "don't touch" reminder, outline each tool in bright red paint. Falls from a ladder are high on the home accident list. Try painting the top and bottom rungs a bright color, but don't risk covering up dangerous cracks by painting the entire ladder. It can be kept in good condition with several coats of linseed oil. Luminous paints are pretty against white or a pale color — and particularly useful when applied to a light switch or fuse box. Try it also on rocks outlining the driveway to protect the lawn, flowerbeds, and human ankles.

Glaser in Return; Gains Riviera Post

By GEORGE LAINE

One of this town's best-known, best-loved figures returned to the hotel scene here Saturday when the Riviera Hotel announced that Ernie Glaser had been named resident manager of the North Indian Avenue luxury hotel.

That's great news, of course, for the myriad number of Villagers who have come to know and respect Glaser over recent years.

IN A WAY, the appointment was a fitting one.

Glaser was named to fill the vacancy which Bob Fisher's death occasioned. Since I also counted Fisher among my very good friends, it is seemly that Glaser (whom I value beyond his mere hotel capabilities; should replace Fisher.

The announcement came from the desk of Ted Radcliff, executive manager of the hotel, and emanated from the hotel's ownership.

RIVIERA PATRONS will find, I'm sure, a new and recognizable attitude present with the addition of Glaser.

Ernie has one quality that simply cannot be learned, cannot be acquired and cannot be substituted: that's the ability to be concerned about guests. A more gracious host does not exist in this community at any level or in any capacity and the Riviera is indeed fortunate to have obtained Glaser's services.

(It is altogether possible that Ernie, who had his life somewhat disrupted by the tragic death of his wife this past spring, will find incentive in the new job to build his life here anew.)

HOWARD MANORING on Friday netted one reprimand from Syd Lewis.

"Tell Ernie Glaser," said Syd, "that the 'George Laine Cha Cha Cha' had words and music by Lewis and Sanchez. If you're gonna use it, at least give credit."

(Speaking of the Manor, I spotted Dave Margolis—who doesn't even own the place now—sitting in the Manor Room in his favorite pose: Dave was shaking his head from side to side.)

L.A.'s JIM MILLER, still a great voice, fell in at the Hilltop Friday night and belted some songs with Clessa Williams.

The two of 'em duet-ed on "Once In a While," followed with more on "I'll String Along With You" and added "You Are My (Desert Sun) Shine."

Plus Jim belted "Old Man River" and some others.

It was a wild night in the Little Club—punctuated by some wild rhythms from the Mariachi Room where Raul and Gustavo were holding forth.

LARRY FOY REPORTS he's had "over a hundred" requests for "The Second Time Around," the great new Van Heusen-Cahn tune.

Now that I've got three of the cuts on it—Connie Russell on United Artists, Hank Mancini on RCA-Victor and the old master, Crosby, on M-G-M—I've got to say that Larry's version still moves me the most.

He doesn't sing it—but he doesn't have to. He reads the word meaning into the tune.

NO WONDER THE pickings were slim around town Friday and Saturday nights. The crowd was at "Whispering Waters out in Rancho Mirage."

"Hollywood on the Desert" had a gang of local citizens over in the club for a look see at the Bill Marx Trio which—as reported earlier—is the swiftest thing that's happened here since Art Pepper left town.

Everything is being readied for the big brawl on Nov. 19 at WW and you'll never get in unless you know someone. (You may not get in then.)

JAY SARGENT is wowing the localities—and the tourist crowd as well—with his rapid fire humor.

Sargent does his hip deejay routine so well that Frank Day and Ace Hudkins and Jerry London have all told me they feel self-conscious when he goes into the act.

(Speaking of Frank, there's as much difference as day and night in the new Howard Manor show—now that the "happy holiday" sound has come to the 3:30 p.m. show. Oh, boy...)

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Johnny Holmgren, the Dunes bartender, is getting married at 5 p.m., today...

Crawford County Arkansas was named for William H. Crawford, the secretary of war in 1815.

CLESSA WILLIAMS, featured vocalist with the Wally Harp Trio, takes a smoke break during a rehearsal session in the Hilltop Room's Little Club. Harp, left, and pianist, Dick Rose, right, also welcome the time out. The trio has made an indelible impact on the mass of Hilltop customers. Raul and Gustavo, mariachis, are also featured in the popular club. (Desert Sun Photo)

AT COACHELLA

Villagers Attend Belafonte Songfest

Many members of the Palm Springs Community Concert Association were in the audience when the Belafonte Folk Singers, one of the most electrifying choral groups now appearing before the public, were presented in concert recently at the Coachella Valley Union High School by the Coachella Valley Community Concert Association, the opening attraction of its 1960-61 series.

At the helm of The Singers is conductor-arranger Robert DeCormier, Harry Belafonte's own musical director, who through his sensitive direction creates magic with the orchestra of voices at his command. The production of Phil Stein, plus the staging by David Thimar, are so beautifully integrated with the singing that the presentation is exciting overwhelming and completely heart stirring.

THIS GROUP of twelve male singers, plus three instrumentalists each a professional musician in his own right, fill any stadium or concert auditorium with delightful sound and colorful action, commanding the complete attention of the audience for their entire program. This "repertory choral group" has been in the making since they first joined forces in 1967, in a tour of America's key cities with Harry Belafonte in his experiment with the use of choral accompaniment for his concert presentations.

Always attuned to the musical wants of the public, and an advocate of the place of folk music in America, Harry Belafonte was more than interested in the popularity of his twelve-man chorus. Encouraged—and sponsored—by Belafonte, whose name they bear—and directed and molded by DeCormier—the Singers became a permanent unique choral group, a nucleus that works together developing a distinctive style and gathering and presenting a well-rounded repertoire of folk material. Those in attendance at the Coachella Valley concert were thrilled with the rich and varied repertoire which highlights the program of the group—including selections

THE SINGERS, IN THE numbers which required conducting, were directed by one of their group, Walter Raim, guitarist and baritone, who did a most creditable job in the absence of their conductor-arranger Robert DeCormier. DeCormier had been called back to New York to supervise new recordings for Belafonte.

The Belafonte Folk Singers reveal a new type of concert presentation which successfully blends the art of folk music with the dramatic interpretation and movement of the theatre. Their vast musical repertoire is enhanced by dramatic staging and lighting effects, as well as the adaptability of the group as a whole to change mood as well as melodic expression with each number. Their program is a dedicated effort of a group of twelve men who work as one, expressing the emotions of the ages, with the music created by the ancestors of the world, offering the magic of entertainment at its artistic best.

Personal income in Arkansas in 1959 was more than seven per cent higher than in 1958.

ERNIE GLASER, well known hotel and restaurant man in Palm Springs, has been appointed the new resident manager of the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel. It was revealed today by Mark and Irwin Schuman, owners. Glaser's appointment fills a vacancy left by the death of Bob Fisher. Ted Radcliff is executive manager of the hotel. (Desert Sun Photo)

VAN BROCKLIN IS 'RIVAL' TO UNITAS

By NORMAN MILLER
United Press International

Norm Van Brocklin of the Philadelphia Eagles is challenging Johnny Unitas of the Baltimore Colts as the National Football League's quarterback - of - the - year, and the battle could go all the way to the championship play-off.

Van Brocklin, who at 33 is having one of his greatest pro seasons, threw three touchdown passes Sunday as the Eagles crushed the Pittsburgh Steelers, 34-7, and took over sole possession of first place in the Eastern Division with a 5-1 record. In all, he completed 19 of 30 passes for a total of 235 yards.

UNITAS ALSO had the kind of a day that won him all-pro honors for the last two seasons. He tossed four touchdown passes in a 38-24 triumph over the Green Bay Packers. Unitas connected on 20 of 29 for 324 yards. The win boosted the Colts (5-2) back into the Western Division lead.

Meanwhile, the New York Giants remained in contention the hard way — largely by grinding out yardage on the wet field in Cleveland, where they upset the Browns, 17-13, before a crowd of 82,872. The victory over the Giants (4-1) up to second place in the Eastern sector and dumped the Browns (4-2) to third.

IN OTHER GAMES, the St. Louis Cardinals trounced the Washington Redskins, 44-7, as John Roach threw three TD passes to Sonny Randle; the Los Angeles Rams sent the Dallas Cowboys down to their seventh straight defeat, 38-13, and the Detroit Lions surprised the San Francisco Forty-Niners, 24-6.

The Houston Oilers pulled away from the field in the Eastern Division of the American Football League when George Blanda connected on four touchdown passes in a 45-23 victory over the Denver Broncos, the Dallas Texans beat the Buffalo Bills, 45-23.

THE CROWD AT Cleveland was the biggest ever to see a game there. And the 56,234 which turned out for the Eagles-Steelers was the second largest ever to watch an NFL game in Philadelphia. A total of 235,819 paid their way into the six NFL games Sunday. The two AFL games drew 34,099.

Van Brocklin completed touchdown passes of 24, 39 and 26 to Tommy McDonald as the Eagles beat the Steelers for their fifth straight.

A CROWD OF 57,802 at Baltimore watched the Packers rally to tie the Colts at 24-24 in the final period on Paul Hornung's 21-yard field goal. Unitas then hit Ray Berry with a 16-yard scoring pass and after Baltimore intercepted a Packers pass a few minutes later, Alex Hawkins sprinted 13 yards for the clinching score.

Mel Triplett gained more rushing yardage than Jimmy Brown and Bobby Mitchell combined and the Giants' magnificent defense held the Browns to a net gain of six yards in the freezing wind and intermittent snow flurries at Cleveland.

Triplett gained 133 yards in 24 carries while Brown, the NFL's leading ball-carrier, gained only 29 yards in 11 carries and Mitchell picked up 14 in 9 attempts.

Thompson Has Tests Today on Freak Injury

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — (UPI) — Mickey Thompson, 31, holder of the American land speed record, undergoes hospital tests today and Tuesday to determine whether a freak boating accident will leave his legs permanently paralyzed.

The El Monte, Calif., race driver was confined in Boulder City Hospital with a fractured vertebra suffered Sunday when he tested a speed boat on Lake Mead.

THE UP AND down motion of the boat as it bounced over small waves at 75 miles an hour caused the back injury, technically known as a compression fracture of the lumbar vertebra, and left his legs paralyzed.

"We'll just have to wait and see," said Dr. John Connolly about whether the paralysis would be permanent. He said it might be merely "spinal shock" and temporary.

"WE SHOULD KNOW within about 48 hours," a spokesman said.

Thompson, who drove a record 405 miles an hour on one way of the Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah, course in his hand-built car recently, was testing a boat designed for water drag racing when the accident occurred.

His test of the boat came as an exhibition at the Lake Mead Challenge Cup hydroplane championships.

Rosburg, Littler Tied at 203 in Coronado Play

CORONADO — (UPI) — Bob Rosburg, Palo Alto, and Gene Littler, San Diego, tied at 203, met today in the final round of the 72-hole $21,000 Hotel del Coronado Professional Golf Tournament.

Two strokes behind Rosburg and Littler was Bud Holscher.

Quinn Trio Wins Prom Tourney At Indian Wells

INDIAN WELLS — Member Tom Quinn and his two partners rolled to a 116 first place low net tally in the 36 hole weekend Prom Cup Invitation Golf tourney here Sunday.

Quinn, teamed with Ted Tesson and Fred Button, tied in the 116 carding with Lewis Frahm and his associates. But the Quinn trio edged out Frahm, Ken Contratto and Lennie Andrews in the 37th hole, in a sudden death play-off.

Art Karadashian, Jack Ganta and Jim Hardy netted 117 for the 36 hole event, to tie with Henry Gould and guests, Doctors Helton and Sagany.

At 120, Ted Morgan, Jim Blakey and Bob Carlisle rounded out the top finishers.

Eddie Susalla, Indian Wells promoter and tourney chairman, reported 144 contestants entered the play which swung onto the turf Saturday at the blast of a shotgun.

Soccer Action Set for Sunday

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — The United States All - Star Soccer Team today headed for Mexico City and what could be the deciding game Sunday in the North American Zone playoffs for the World Soccer Championship tourney.

Three-to-one underdogs going into Sunday's game played at Wrigley Field, the Yanks turned in sparkling second half to overcome a 31 halfway deficit and knot the game 3-3.

The playoffs are the best of three. The tie Sunday means that the winner of next Sunday's game in Mexico City will represent the North American Zone against Central America's winner.

Village Bowlers Edge El Centro

Fred Hathaway's Palm Springs Bowling team took on his El Centro team yesterday, defeating them 2-1 in three games.

Maury Koolen of the Palm Springs team was high scorer with 219, and Louie Folk scored 210 in the second game.

El Centro won when Frank Angelo hit a score of 210.

A return match between the two teams will be played Nov. 20 at Palm Springs Lanes.

FOLLOWING IMPRESSIVE WINS

Minnesota, Washington Are Headed for Rose Bowl

By MARTIN LADER
United Press International

Minnesota's Gophers, all but downed on their own campus last year, today appear headed for the nation's most lucrative post-season game — the Rose Bowl — following their 27-10 upset victory over top-ranked Iowa last Saturday.

Washington, winner of the Pasadena classic last New Year's Day and 34-0 victor over Southern California Saturday, is the top choice to fill the spot against Minnesota while Missouri, Mississippi and Arkansas also furthered their prospects of bowl assignments with weekend victories.

WITH TWO WEEKS of the season to go, here's how the picture for major bowl games shapes up:

Rose — Washington (7-1) vs. Minnesota (7-0).

Sugar — Mississippi (7-0) vs. Baylor (5-2) or Rice (5-2).

Orange — Missouri (8-0) vs. Duke (6-1).

Cotton — Arkansas (6-2) vs. Alabama (5-1), or Navy (7-1).

WHAT PROVED to be a glory-packed Saturday for some schools however, resulted in a day of misery for other major power as half the nation's top 10 teams went down to defeat.

Joining kingly Iowa on the deficit ledger were third-ranked Navy, 19 - 10 to Duke; eighth-ranked Tennessee, 14-7 to Georgia Tech; ninth-ranked Syracuse, 9 - 6 to Army; and 10th-ranked Rice, 3-0 to Arkansas.

FOURTH-RANKED Missouri defeated Colorado 16-6, fifth-ranked Ohio State ripped Indiana, 36-7, and sixth-ranked Mississippi trounced Chattanooga, 45-0.

Minnesota, which had a 2-7 record last year and finished at the bottom of the Big 10, completed its spectacular rise before a record home crowd of 65,810. The second-ranked Gophers took advantage of three Iowa fumbles to score their seventh straight victory without a loss.

SEVENTH-RANKED Washington also capitalized on fumbles to tighten its Rose Bowl chances. George Fleming was the scoring star for the Huskies, running 65 yards for a first-period touchdown kicking field goals of 25 and 36 yards and also converting four extra points.

Mississippi, which defeated

Louisiana State, 21-0, in the Sugar bowl last New Year's Day, strengthened its chance to defend its title by routing Chattanooga.

The Middles are keeping silent about any post-season games for a while, but they are a possibility for the Cotton Bowl or another bowl. Arkansas kicked itself into first place in the Southwest Conference, the champion of which will host the Cotton Bowl, on a 26-yard field goal by Mickey Cisell with 25 seconds remaining in the game.

Horse May Bring Back Baseball Loss

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press International

NEW YORK — (UPI) — It couldn't have happened during the diamond reign of Commissioner Kennesaw Mountain Landis, but cherubic Bill Macdonald of Miami is hoping that a horse will get him even for his baseball losses.

Judge Landis saved baseball after the 1919 Black Sox scandal by placing it under such rigid supervision that public faith was restored. Never would he permit his minions an association with anything remotely connected with the "evils" of wagering.

But times have changed.

JOHN W. GALBREATH, president of the world champion Pittsburgh Pirates, has large racing interests. Several of his chargers are nominated for the Pimlico Futurity and the Marguerite Stakes.

Mrs. Charles S. Payson, principal stockholder in the proposed new National League club in New York, is another noted horse owner. Baseball aside, she is better known as co-owner of the Green-tree Stable with her brother, John Hay Whitney, the U. S. ambassador to England.

MACDONALD, the pink-check-ed sportsman who promotes golf tournaments, is commodore of a yacht club and a director of Tropical Park, can be well pleased that the stern-faced judge no longer is at the baseball helm and that times, indeed, have altered as far as racing associations are concerned.

His Miami Marlins of the International League lost $250,000 last season.

His filly, Royal Native, has earned $222,495 in purses this year.

"SHE CAN GET ME even for the season," quips the ever-smiling Macdonald, "if she'll win the $25,000 Gallorette Stakes at Pimlico on Dec. 3."

Bill paid $252,500 for the filly last March because "I just had to have her."

"Sure, it was a lot of coconuts," he nods, "but I took one look and I was a goner. I just had to own this filly. I didn't know whether she'd ever get me even but, my, ain't she purty?"

The filly has done much more than just look "purty." This year she has won the Columbian, Black Helen, Suwannee River, Colonial, Top Flight, Molly Pitcher and Arlington Matron Stakes.

NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe they need a traffic cop for material at NBC. "Dow Hour of Great Mysteries" announced Sept. 8 that Robert Louis Stevenson's tale, "The Suicide Club," would be its third production in the fall. Suddenly, on a week's notice, the "Chevy Mystery Show" summer replacement series scheduled a dramatization of same for Sept. 18, and went through with it.

"Dow" dropped the property and put considerable red ink on its ledger for costs already incurred. Mark next April 17 in your date books as the time for the "Oscar" telecast from Hollywood. The movie awards will be on the ABC network this time and at least for the four years following.

The two concerts given at the West Berlin Music Festival Sept. 22 and 23 by conductor Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic were video-taped in performance. The tape will be edited into an hour of music as one of the four Bernstein Philharmonic TV shows on CBS this season. The Berlin show will be aired either late in the fall or early in January.

ABC has commissioned a one-hour filmed special to be made in Hollywood based on the life of the late Dr. Kate Pelham Newcomb, whose career was dedicated to serving those in the backwoods areas of Wisconsin. Jane Wyman has been signed to play the doctor, who gave permission before her death last year for a TV reconstruction of her life, according to ABC. An air date for the show has not been set.

Boris Karloff, who is host on NBC's new "Thriller" series Tuesday nights, commutes to work in Hollywood from London. The star, who lived in this country for some 30 years, replanted his roots in his native land last year by buying a London flat, figuring that with today's rapid transportation it didn't make much difference where he lived and worked.

Walt Disney recently went to the home town of his childhood, Marceline, Mo., and dedicated the Walt Disney Elementary School. The producer also has grammar schools bearing his name in Tullytown, Pa., and Anaheim, Calif.
